RULING ON ENTITLEMENT<sup>1</sup>

Vowell, Chief Special Master:

On March 17, 2015, Maureen McGrath filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,<sup>2</sup> [the "Vaccine Act" or "Program"]. Petitioner alleges that she suffered "injuries resulting from adverse effects" of her August 28, 2012 Tdap vaccination, including a tendon tear, and left shoulder pain. Petition at 1, ¶¶ 3, 7. Petitioner further alleges that she experienced the residual effects of her injury for more than six months, has filed no other action for this injury, and has received no prior award or settlement for this injury. Petition, ¶¶ 10, 13-14. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On August 10, 2015, respondent filed her Rule 4(c) report in which she concedes that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent's Rule 4(c) Report at 4. Specifically, respondent “concludes that Ms. McGrath suffered an injury of Shoulder Injury Related to Vaccine Administration, and that the preponderance of the medical evidence indicates that the injury was casually related to the vaccination. Therefore, compensation is appropriate.” Id. at 3-4.

In view of respondent’s concession and the evidence before me, I find that petitioner is entitled to compensation.
